Atrocity case against asst prof over Ambedkar photograph

RASHMI BELUR @ Bengaluru

AN assistant professor at the Central University Karnataka (Kalaburagi) is facing an atrocity case after she removed the photograph of Dr BR Ambedkar hung in her chamber while she was on leave.

She is allegedly being threatened by a number of people for removing the photo and handing it over to the Registrar of the University.

Dr Priya Narayanan, Assistant Professor, Department of Geography, plans to approach the Centre seeking protection after she started getting threat calls from unknown numbers.

The SC/ST cell of the university has filed the case against her at Narona police station under the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act.

The complaint accuses her of showing disrespect to Dr Ambedkar by her act.

Dr Priya Narayanan told Express, "My chamber was opened and the photo hung on a wall when I was not around. All I did was to return it to the registrar along with a letter saying I would put the photo back if the instructions to display it came through proper channels."

"How can they file an atrocity case for

Over to the SP

Shashi Kumar N, Superintendent of Police, Kalaburagi, said, "We have not registered an FIR for atrocities in connection with a photo. The complaint says that the accused insulted their caste by her act. Whenever such allegations are made, we are bound to take action. We are investigating the case."

handing over a photo? I did not show any disrespect to Dr Ambedkar. I just questioned the way it was hung in my chamber without either a circular from the Vice-Chancellor or instructions from the UGC. I stick to my stand. Why should I follow a circular issued by the SC/ST cell of the university which has no right to issue such circulars?" Narayanan asked.

Dr Maheshwaraiah, Vice-Chancellor of the university, said that instead of removing the photo she could have written a letter. "It is not true that I had not approved the circular issued by the SC/ST cell regarding display of Dr Ambedkar's photo."

Dismissing Priya Narayanan's claims that he did not respond to her mails, the V-C said he had returned from Delhi only on Wednesday. "Meanwhile, we are trying to get the complaint withdrawn," he added.
